

ISLINGTON

Autumn 2019

FOLK CLUB

"From the fiercely traditional to the frankly eccentric"

September

12 Mat Green & Andy Turner
English traditional music & song and a few surprises

19 Ajay Srivastav
From the delta blues to the sacred rivers of Indian folk

26 Singaround
Come sing, come play, come listen!

November

7 Swedish Night
Act to be finalised
7.30pm King and Queen

14 David Rovics
Politically powerful song from the USA

21 Tony Hall
Melodeon maestro and legend

28 Graham Larkbey, Alice Reid, Davy Willis
The quirky and the political, fine unaccompanied singing, fingerpicking and original songs

October

3 Dave Ellis & Boo Radley
Fine songsmiths whose partnership began in 1979
7.30pm King and Queen

10 The Brothers Gillespie
Fantastic young duo from the North East

17 Steve Turner
Folk stalwart and pioneer of the English concertina

24 Kath Tait
Witty and intelligent song from the New Zealand "Diva of the Dysfunctional"

31 A Haunted Evening with Amanda MacLean and Brian Gardner
Songs of ghosts and horror welcome

December

5 Laura Victoria and Jo Cooper
Laura writes and performs original songs with "an arresting combination of strength and fragility" - Maverick Magazine

12 Reuben's Train
Americana and more

19 Our not-to-be missed Christmas party

26 Closed

Unless otherwise stated, all events are at The Taproom, 163 Upper St, N1, commencing at 8pm. Please note 7.30pm start on 3rd Oct & 7th Nov at The King and Queen, 1 Foley St, W1W 6DL